16: Rare Vintage Peugeot Man & Woman

USD 800 - 1,200

Rare Vintage Peugeot Man and Woman's Bicycles In 1970, a young New York City advertising art director was assigned to work on the account of Peugeot bicycles, then considered one of the finest makers of bicycles there was. After producing several projects for the French company, that art director was rewarded for his efforts with a gift of these two (2) bicycles. At the time, these were described as two of only a handful of bicycles that were made to reflect back on designs from the early part of the 20th Century. Although the handlebars have some pitting and the bikes need a thorough cleaning, they are complete and believed to be in truly excellent condition. The gentleman's bike, at the moment, has a locking device under the seat that in no way impedes the bicycle's use. However, it is lacking the key, which disappeared many years ago. The lock will likely need to be cut off. The consignment to this auction is coming directly from the former art director who has owned the bicycles to this day. Men's bike: 26" wheels; 22" seat tube. Women's bike: 26" wheels; 21 seat tube. This is an unreserved auction with no minimums. This is an online only sale. Items may be viewed upon appointment in New York City. USD 500 - 800

Three-Tiered Silver-Plated Tavern on the Green Dessert Pedestal About a decade ago, a major auction was held of the contents of New York City's famed Tavern on the Green restaurant. This dramatic dessert display, sometimes referred to as a three-tiered tazza, was from that sale. The edge of the tray on the lowest level is slightly dented capable of being straightened. No attempt has been made to polish this, but it no doubt would come to a brilliant shine should it be. 23" tall This is an unreserved auction with no minimums. This is an online only sale. Items may be viewed upon appointment in New York City. Notice to bidders: More detailed condition reports and additional photographs are available by request. The absence of a condition report does not imply that the lot is in excellent condition. Please message us through the online bidding platform or call Guernsey's at 212-794-2280 to request a more thorough condition report.

82: Tavern on the Green Bill Covers

USD 250 - 350

Tavern on the Green Bill Covers When one dined at New York City's landmark Tavern on the Green (for decades, considered the world's most famous restaurant) and one received a bill after the meal, it came in a handsome, rigid check presenter. This lot consists of fifty (50) such check presenters in new condition. Suitable for someone with a restaurant today or for someone who loved the legendary Tavern on the Green. 10" x 5.5" This is an unreserved auction with no minimums. This is an online only sale. Items may be viewed upon appointment in New York City. Notice to bidders: More detailed condition reports and additional photographs are available by request. Ben Shahn, Wood Engraving "Skowhegan", wood engraving on Japon paper, 1965; ed. 131/200; engraved and printed by Stefan Martin; signed in pencil artist under his red Hebrew calligraphy woodblock chop mark; also signed by printer. Literature: "The Complete Graphics Works of Ben Shahn" by Kenneth W. Prescott. Figure 62, pg. 64. Ben Shahn (1898-1969) was a Lithuanian-born American artist and member of the Social Realist movement. His expressive figurative imagery was inexorably tied to his pursuit of social justice and lifelong activism within leftist political beliefs. Although he often explored polemic themes of modern urban life, organized labor, immigration and injustice, he did so while maintaining a compassionate tone. Shahn identified himself as a communicative artist. He challenged the esoteric pretensions of art, which he believed disconnect artists and their work from the public. As an alternative, he proposed an intimate and mutually beneficial relationship between artist and audience. Shahn's works are held in the collections of the Art Institute of Chicago, the New York's Whitney Museum of Art, the Tate Gallery in London, and the National Gallery of art in Washington, DC, among others. paper: 16 1/4 x 12"; frame: 19 2/3 x 15 1/4" This is an unreserved auction with no minimums. 154: Robert Gwathmey, Migrant

USD 800 - 1,200

Robert Gwathmey, Migrant "Migrant", screenprint, 1978, signed and numbered in pencil, ed. #29/100. Printed by The Screenprint Workshop, New York, Published by Five Towns Music and Art Foundation, New York. Archivaly framed. Robert Gwathmey (American 1903-1988) became an artist known for his Social Realist depictions of life in the rural South. He was one of the first white artists to create dignified images of African-American people and did so in a style that was Modernist with many geometric forms and bold coloration. Gwathmey grew into his mature social realist style during the 1940s. A compassionate observer of the human condition, Gwathmey chose rural Southern life, and especially the plight of African Americans, as his subject matter and social commentary. His best-known works are characterized by simplified forms, tight composition, strong outlines, and patterning. Gwathmey's work is included in many public and private collections throughout the United States, including the Smithsonian Museum of American Art, Museum of Fine Arts in Boston, National Academy of Design, and the Library of Congress. image: 27 3/4 x 18 3/4"; frame: 35 1/2 x 26 1/4" This is an unreserved auction with no minimums. 166: Roger Tory Peterson, Estate Photograph

USD 400 - 600

Great egret. Egretta alba, US to South America. Pencil marked 1/1, Estate embossed. 20.5" x 14" image size. Professionally hinged mounted and matted. Pristine condition. This magnificent original photographic print was made from a transparency provided by the Roger Troy Peterson Estate which authorized the print. It is the only such print made from that transparency in existence. Roger Tory Peterson's name is synonymous with the pursuit of "birding." Although the public grew to love the paintings of Dr. Peterson through his Field Guides, the artist was equally accomplished as a nature photographer. In the 1980's, he founded NAMPA, the North American Nature Photography Association now consisting of more than 2,500 professional members. Viewed as the "Father of Nature Photography," in recognition of Roger Tory Peterson's pioneering efforts, the annual award for excellence granted by NANPA is named after him. Dr. Peterson also has won numerous awards and medals, including the Presidential Medal of Freedom, and he has been nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize. This is an unreserved auction with no minimums. 256: FDR World War II Confidential Note on White House paper

USD 2,000 - 3,000

President Franklin D. Roosevelt A typed note on "White House, Washington" notepad signed "FDR" and dated September 22, 1944. It is marked "CONFIDENTIAL". The note is addressed to Admiral Brown, and indicates that FDR was planning a trip to England and France as the Allies begin to turn the tide of war in their favor. The President states that he would like to arrange a naval ship to transport him to the Continent, suggesting that the recently completed Battleship USS Missouri (which ultimately received 11 battle stars for service in WWII, Korea, and the Persian Gulf, now serves as a museum ship in Pearl Harbor) or on a large cruiser such as the Alaska or Guam. President Roosevelt states he has no interest in taking a ship out of military service, but felt his trip to his wartime allies would be important. Only months later did the landmark Yalta Conference take place, suggesting that this may have been the President's early attempts to plan that meeting. Provenance: From the Grace Tully Collection. 261: Jacqueline Kennedy Perfume and Official Portrait

USD 4,000 - 5,000

Jacqueline Kennedy Perfume and Official Portrait. Shadow box framed display of Jacqueline "The Perfume Created to Honor First Lady Jacqueline Kennedy." Encased in the shadowbox is an actual bottle of the perfume, the pouch it came in, and a print of Mrs. Kennedy's perfume bottle and black satin satchel with gold tassels, emblazoned on gold with "Jaqueline." Wood framed shadow box with original black and white photograph of Jacqueline Kennedy with facsimile signature "With best Wishes, Jacqueline Kennedy." Jacqueline's mild disapproval abruptly ended the unauthorized Democratic National Committee's production of "Jaqueline" perfume. With fewer than fifty samples believed to have been produced, this is one of the only known surviving examples. This perfume demonstrates the Democrats' desire to commercialize Jacqueline's popularity. Always concerned about her image, Jacqueline resisted the attempts to cash in on this popularity. 11.75 x 15 x 3" shadow box, 2.25 x 1.5" half-fluid ounce bottle, 4.25 x 2.3" satchel, 7.25 x 9.25" photograph. 261A: Jacqueline Kennedy Print, White House Envelope

USD 200 - 300

First Lady Jacqueline Kennedy Print in White House Envelope to Mr. Bobby White. Although this promotional image of Jacqueline Kennedy with printed autograph and "best wishes" inscription is relatively commonplace, what makes this lot noteworthy is the fact that this print was sent in the accompanying envelope from The White House to Mr. Bobby White in September, 1963. Already fascinated by President Kennedy at the time, 14 year old Bobby's life forever changed two months later with the President's assassination. Robert "Bobby" White went on to focus his life on the career of the now late President. Befriending the President's trusted secretary Evelyn Lincoln, White's unrelenting passion and determination allowed him to put together an unprecedented collection of many of JFK's most treasured possessions. Eventually numbering an estimated 100,000 objects, Robert White's John F. Kennedy and Jacqueline Kennedy Collections became known around the world. In an effort to fund a Kennedy Museum, White sold hundreds of items at a major auction in 1998. Robert then opened and curated this Museum in St. Peterburg, Florida until his sudden death in 2003. This "Jackie" print was one of the first items collected by the young Bobby White and led to his legendary accomplishments. 9"x12" envelope. This is an unreserved auction with no minimums. This is an online only sale. Items may be viewed upon appointment in New York City. Notice to bidders: More detailed condition reports and additional photographs are available by request. 262: President and Mrs. Kennedy

USD 500 - 700

President and Mrs. Kennedy's Trip to Mexico. This hand assembled 84 page itinerary initially was part of the famed Robert White Collection and given to Mr. White by Evelyn Lincoln, the President Kennedy's beloved secretary. A letter on White House stationery written by Evelyn Lincoln's husband Harold, accompanies the Mexico itinerary. The trip to Mexico was dated June 1962. Also includes a mimeographed minute by minute timetable and a photograph of President Kennedy (with Jackie to his side) making a speech in Mexico; these two objects are not shown. One typed 18-page Jacqueline Kennedy day-by-day itinerary, dated June 28, 1962, signed "J. Kennedy" in upper right corner, headlined "FOR GOVERNMENT USE ONLY," on white paper, including motorcade list and seating arrangements, for June 29-July 1, 1962 visit. One information guide titled "Visit of President and Mrs. John F. Kennedy to Mexico June 1962" produced by the U.S. Embassy in Mexico, given to Jacqueline Kennedy upon her arrival in Mexico City. Six original color photographs by R.L Knudsen stamped on reverse June 29, 1962. Letter of authenticity from Harold W. Lincoln on White House stationery. Jacqueline became the "unofficial" Ambassador of the United States as she traveled with her husband. In Mexico on this three-day diplomatic visit, she received an enthusiastic reception, especially after seeing "en Espanol." This is one of the most extensive, detailed foreign visit documents seen from the Kennedy Era. A complete briefing of Mexico is given in the guide presented to Jacqueline. The Ambassador's Letter of Welcome, key officials' biographies, important meetings, and even shopping trips are included. The color photographs provide a firsthand glimpse of the main events, as well as the President and Mrs. Kennedy disembarking the plane, and Kennedy speaking at a luncheon. 10.5 x 8" itinerary, 11.5 x 9" guide, 10 x 8.5" six photographs, 10.5 x 8" letter. 384A: Chelsea Brass Wall Clock from SS United States

USD 900 - 1,200

Chelsea Brass Wall Clock Removed from the Executive Office of the Oceanliner SS United States with Second Hand On the verso is old tape "exec. off office". In 1984 a major auction of the contents of the oceanliner SS United States was conducted adjacent to the ship, which was docked in Norfolk, Virginia at the time. This clock was one of many Chelsea clocks that were relied on for the proper functioning of what was America's largest and most extraordinary oceanliner. Indeed, the "Big U" set, and still holds, the Blue-Ribbon award for fastest trans-Atlantic crossing, which it accomplished on its maiden voyage in 1951 when it averaged more than forty (40) knots traveling from England to New York. The SS US was clearly the ship of choice by presidents, dignitaries, and celebrities who crossed the Atlantic. Guernsey's will supply a letter of authenticity to the buyer regarding its relationship to the SS United States. 7 1/4" diameter 3" deep This is an unreserved auction with no minimums. 386: Vintage Model 652 Fada Radio & Westinghouse Clock Radio

USD 3,000 - 4,000

Two early bakelite radios An original Fada and a Westinghouse clock radio. The Fada's case is in particularly lovely, original condition. The Fada measures 6 1/4" x 11" x 6". It has no cracks or chips to the Bakelite case or glass dial-face. Attached is the bill for the current owner when he bought it for $250 back in 1984. It was purchased from Steve Gelfand of Ramsey, New Jersey. When purchased it is the recollection of the owner that it was in working condition, although now, when plugged it, it produces no sounds. The dials and composition washers on the bottom appear originals and the protective foot pads indicate its originality as well. It is Model 652. The Westinghouse Clock Radio has a working electric clock. It is also believed to have been working at the time of purchase, but has since been on display. Since display, the radio no longer produces sound when plugged in. The case is free of cracks, breaks, and chips. This is an unreserved auction with no minimums. This is an online only sale. In 2008, Mr. Richards tragically and suddenly died quite young, leaving behind his collection of hundreds of motion picture posters featuring African-American stars and addressing African-American issues, as well as rare broadsides, window cards, and ephemera. Additionally, he possessed items relating to African-American and slavery history. His collection has been deemed so culturally important that a section of it is now in the collection of the Smithsonian National Museum of African American History and Culture. His wife, Dr. Beverly Richards, now oversees the collection, and has lectured on and exhibited the items both nationally and internationally. This is an unreserved auction with no minimums. This is an online only sale. Items may be viewed upon appointment in New York City. Notice to bidders: More detailed condition reports and additional photographs are available by request.
